

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

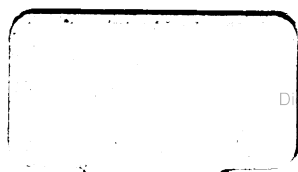

About Google Book Search

The American Fur Trade of the Far West

By MAJOR HIRAM M. CHITTENDEN, U. S. ENGINEER CORPS.
A History of the Pioneer Trading Posts and Early Fur Companies of the Missouri Valley and the Rocky Mountains, and of the Overland Commerce with Santa Fe, etc., written largely from manuscript and other records hitherto inaccessible. Illustrated with maps and plates.
3 vols., 8vo, cloth, uncut, per set $10.00 net
A work of the highest merit and greatest importance on the early history of the Great West. The author has embodied in it the results of years of painstaking research, going into the whole subject with a thoroughness and ability rarely met with in these days. Every known printed authority has been consulted and digested, and in addition a mass of original manuscripts hitherto inaccessible has been placed at Capt. Chittenden's disposal. The result is that many important details connected with the discovery and development of the West are now first brought to light.

We Buy

Large and Small Collections of

Books

WE are always ready to purchase FOR CASH at full market rates large or small collections of books, and special sets of volumes of value. The distance from New York makes no difference, a brief list giving title and author, date of publication and binding, being all that is necessary. We have for years made extensive purchases from Executors and others in all parts of the United States, and Public Libraries and Historical Societies having "duplicates" will find it to their advantage to communicate with us. . . .

INTRODUCTION

WE take pleasure in presenting our new Americana Catalogue embodying the results of purchases made largely from private libraries during the last two years. We may say that all the books described here are desirable items, and many are of great rarity. We would call special attention to the large number of titles under Genealogy and Family Histories.

All works mentioned in this Catalogue are now on our shelves, but in most cases we have but a single copy, so an early order is desirable. While rarities are to be found on nearly every page, our purpose has been to keep in stock out-of-print "WORKING BOOKS" of recognized value at reasonable prices. A study of this Catalogue will reveal that the prices are below the average usually asked for desirable copies. Good Americana is becoming each year scarcer and is undoubtedly increasing in value but we have, owing to our exceptional facilities for tracing and purchasing private collections entire, been able, with but few exceptions, to adhere to the prices of former years.

The descriptions are in most cases brief and all lots are in good second condition and perfect, unless otherwise described.

No. 14 West 22d Street

NEW YORK CITY.

EARLY VOYAGES OF DISCOVERY

(Including Pre-Columbian and Columbian and Early Colonial History)

1 Abelin, J. Ph. Neue Welt. und Americanische Historien. Inhaltende Warhafftige und vollkommene Beschreibungen aller West Indianischen Landschafften Insulen — durch Johann Ludwig Gottfriedt. Engraved title, 3 maps, 1 folding plate, and 173 etchings, including a view of Manila. Folio, calf, pp. 663. Frankfurt, 1655. $20.00

Jean Phillippe Abelin published this work under the assumed name of Jean-Louis Gottfriedt. It contains a resumé of the Histories of Acosta, Oviedo, Peter Martyr, Herrera, Laet, etc. There are 33 voyages to America, notices of the expeditions of Lemaire and Peter Heyn, the Conquest of Brazil by the Dutch, and descriptions of Greenland and Spitzbergen, etc.

2 American Colonial Tracts relating to Georgia and Virginia, etc. (Montgomery Establishment of a New Colony to South Carolina, 1717; Oglethorpe Colony of Georgia, 1733; A Narrative of Indian Wars in Virginia, 1675-76, etc.) 12 rare tracts reprinted and bound in one volume. Thick 8vo, cloth, uncut. Rochester, 1897-98. $3.50

3 Anson's Voyage Round the World, 1740-44. Compiled from his Papers by Richard Walters. Maps and charts. 8vo, calf, pp. 548. Lond., 1748. $3.00

A voyage of most consuming interest. Anson hated the Spaniards and despised the Frenchmen, and was the veriest bulldog of all circumnavigators, loving nothing better than a tough contest. He is said to have returned from his four-years' voyage with more spoils than any other individual ever brought home.

4 Belle-Forest, François. L'His-toire Universelle du Monde. Contenant l'entiere description et situa-tion des quatre de la terre. Small folio, calf, red edges. Paris, 1570. $25.00

A good copy of this scarce work. The portion which relates to America is largely devoted to a description of the American Indians, their manners, customs, religion, and ceremonies.

The Bolton Corney copy sold in 1871 for £22, and was resold in the Murphy sale in 1884 for $95.

5 Benson, John. A Short Account of the Voyages, Travels and Adventures of John Benson (of Newport, R. I.), comprising Seven Voyages to different parts of the World, with Anecdotes of Men and Manners. 12mo boards, pp. 120. n. p. n. d. $2.50

6 Benzoni (Giralamo). La Historia del Mondo Nuova di M. Gualamo Benzoni Milanese, la qual tratta dell' I sole and Mari nuonamente ritronate and delle nuone Citta da lui proprio vedute, per acqua and per terra in quattordici anni. Illust. with curious cuts. 16mo, finely bound by Rivierre in full crimson mor., gilt tooled, gilt edges, 175 leaves. Venezia, 1565. $25.00

The very rare first edition. Benzoni was the first regular European Traveller in the New World who published his travels. His journeys occupied fourteen years, 1541 to 1555. "The Aborigines always seemed first to attract his attention, and he has accordingly afforded us some of the rarest pictures of their condition and habits at that early day, of which the rude wood cuts printed in the text are quaint but spirited illustrations."—Field.

7 Bermuda. The Historie of the Bermudas or Summer Islands, edited from a MS. in the British Museum by Genl. J. Henry Lefroy. Plates. 8vo, cloth, pp. 327. London Hakluyt Soc. 1882. $3.50

8 Brown, Alex. The First Republic in America, an Account of the Origin of the Nation (the Settlement of Virginia), written from Records then concealed by the Council rather than from the Histories then licensed by the Crown. 8vo cloth, pp. 688. Bost., 1898. $6.00

9 Brown, Marie A. The Icelandic Discoverers of America. 12mo, cloth, pp. 213. Bost., 1888. $1.50

10 Bulkeley, John, and Cummins, John. A Voyage to the South-Seas, in the years 1740-41, containing a faithful Narrative of the Loss of his Majesty's Ship, The Wager, on a desolate Island, with the hardships (the crew) endured on the Island for five months, their safe arrival in Brazil, etc. 8vo, new half calf, gilt top, pp. 220. Lond., 1743. $5.00

The authors were Gunner and Carpenter of the Wager.

11 Burke. Account of the European Settlements in America; with Discovery, Manners, and Customs of the Indians, Settlements of the Spanish, Portuguese, Dutch, French, and English. 2 vols., 8vo, calf. Lond., 1758. $4.00

A chapter is devoted to the City of New York.

12 Burney, James. A Chronological History of the Discoveries in the South Sea; or, Pacific Ocean (including a History of the Buccaneers). Maps and plates. 5 vols., 4to, fresh half mor., gilt, gilt tops, uncut. Lond., 1803-17. $40.00

Fine copy of this scarce set. A masterly work of great research.

13 Burton, Robert. The English Empire in America or View of the Dominions of the Crown. New England, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Virginia, Carolina, Jamaica, etc. Map. 16mo, new full sprinkled calf, yellow edges, pp. 192. Lond., 1739. $15.00

Fine copy. Contains an account of the customs and ceremonies of the Indians who inhabit Manhattan Island.

14 Cabeca De Vaca. Relations of, translated by Buckingham Smith. Portrait. 8vo, cloth, pp. 299. N. Y. 1871. $25.00

With A. L. S. of the translator. Scarce edition limited to 100 copies. Account of one of the earliest of the explorations within territory that is now the United States.

15 Cabot. Deane Chas. Remarks on Sebastian Cabot's Mapped-Monde. Map. 8vo paper, Cambridge, 1867. $1.00

"Brantz, Mayer, Esq., with the compliments of Charles Deane." Fifty copies reprinted from Am. Antiquarian Society Proceedings for presentation.

16 Cabot. Desimoni Cornelio. Intomo Giovanni Caboto. 8vo, pp. 63. Giovanni Verrazzano (Studio Secando), with appendix maps, pp. 104. 3 pieces, 8vo, tinted paper covers. Genova, 1881. $3.00

17 Cabot. Dionne, N. E. John and Sebastian Cabot. 8vo, paper, pp. 46. Quebec, 1898. $1.50

Edition limited to 125 numbered copies.

26 Charlevoix, P. F. X. de. History of New France, translated from the original edition, with notes by Dr.
James Gilmary Shea. A new edition with Life of the translator and a bibliography of his Writings, by Noah Farnham Morrison. Maps and portraits. 6 vols., royal 8vo, cloth, uncut. N. Y., 1901. $18.00

This important work, of which a very limited number was published by the author thirty years ago, is now very rare. A fire having destroyed a large portion of certain of the volumes, only about 150 complete sets were ever sold.

The importance of Dr. Shea's translation of Rev. P. F. X. De Charlevoix's History and General Description of New France, as an original authority and standard reference work, cannot be overestimated. The New France of that date (1740) was far more than what we now know as Canada. It embraced the best part of the North American Continent. Thus Charlevoix, besides giving a full history of Canada down to 1740, relates in detail the early annals of Maine, Vermont, New Hampshire, New York, Michigan, Illinois and Northwestern States, and Louisiana, Arkansas, and Texas. This new edition contains over 40 illustrations, including all the maps, portraits, etc. Limited to 750 numbered sets.

27 Christy, Miller. The Silver Map of the World, a Contemporary Medallion commemorative of Drake's Great Voyage 1577-80, with Critical Remarks on Zeno's Narrative and Chart of 1558. Maps and Charts. 8vo, cloth. Lond., 1900. $3.00

28 Churchill, John. Collection of Voyages and Travels, some now first printed from Original Manuscripts, others now first published in English. Numerous maps and copper plates. 4 vols., folio calf. Lond., 1704. $20.00

One of the best of the old collections and contains a great number relating to America.

29 Clarke, S. A. A Geographical Description of all the Countries of the Known World. That portion relating to America, with separate title and paging; viz., A True and Faithful Account of the Four Chiefest Plantations of the English in America, to wit, Virginia, New England, Bermudas, and Barbados. Pp. 85. Engraved title. Folio, half calf. Lond., 1671. $15.00

30 Columbus. Spanish Letter of Columbus to Luis de Sant Angel, 1493. Facsimile of the Unique Copy printed at Barcelona, 1 April 1493. French edition, Paris 1889; English edition with translation and Preface by M. Kearney. Lond., Quaritch, 1892. 2 vols., folio. $6.00

31 Columbus. The Letter in Spanish of Christopher Columbus, written on his return from his First Voyage, addressed to Luis de Sant Angel. Reproduced in facsimile, with remarks. Portrait. Royal 8vo, cloth. Lond., Ellis & Elvey, 1889. $3.50

Only 500 copies made of this reprint of the 1861 edition of which but 100 copies only were printed, filled with the most interesting details of the peculiarities of the savages before civilization had corrupted, as it has since destroyed them. These relations of travels and voyages are printed either from unedited MSS. or from such obscure sources as to be accessible here for the first time.

138 Smith, Buckingham. An Inquiry into the authenticity of Documents, concerning a Discovery in North America, claimed to have been made by Verrazzano. Map. Large paper copy, 4to, uncut paper, pp. 31. N. Y., 1864. $2.00

ispiece + title page + 26 + 52 + 32 + 10 + 3 pp. of text, and 75 copper plates. Folio. Contemporary binding in velum, gold, central ornaments and gold lines, with corner fleurons on the sides, gilt back. Printed in Holland, 1720. $20.00

This book, which is entitled the great theatre of folly, is a satire against John Law and his celebrated South Sea project. Among the plates which are very remarkable and interesting is that containing a complete set of playing cards, which is often missing, and the other having a fine full-length portrait of John Law. The plates, some with English verses, are full of humor and exposing the swindle of the share market, and the avidity of mankind, at all time anxious to get rich without labor, entailing its usual ruin. A very fine copy of a curious and rare book. Together with the book there are the two following bibliographical pamphlets: Vissering, S. Het groote tafereel der Dwaasheid; Muller, F. Het tafereel der Dwaasheid over den actiehandel van 1720. 8vo, half mor. Amsterdam, 1876. This last pamphlet, which contains the description of the plates, has the autograph English translation by Muller himself.

The most practicable plan for making known, and utilizing the current miscellaneous index of the general collection of manuscripts, is found to be the publication of a series of bulletins. They include the Documentary History of the Constitution, Proceedings of the Federal Convention, Letters from Jefferson, Letters to Jefferson, etc. An appendix is printed with the bulletin containing a reprint of papers of peculiar value and importance. This set is invaluable for reference as it gives a list of the thousands of manuscripts, letters, etc., and a synopsis of their contents.

The most beautiful series of American engraved portraits and quite equal to the English works by Lodge and Knight.

519 Naval Chronicle. Complete Set, containing a General Biographical History of the Royal Navy from 1799 to 1818. Numerous fine copper portraits and plans of Engagements. 40 vols., 8vo, full contemporary calf, gilt. Lond., 1799-1818. Sold

An indispensable work to any naval library, as it contains the most complete account of the great naval wars of the period, comprising elaborate details of the engagements, copies of the despatches, memoirs, anecdotes, etc. It is particularly full in the War of 1812 and of the battles which took place in American waters.

520 Newhall, Chas. S. The Trees of Northeastern America. Illust. 8vo, cloth, pp. 250. N. Y., 1900. $1.25

521 Niles' Weekly Register. Complete set in exceptionally fine condition. Containing Political, Historical, Geographical, Scientifical, Astronomical, Statistical and Biographical Documents, Essays and Facts, with Notices of the Arts and Manufactures, and a Record of the Events of the Times, complete from the commencement in 1811 to the end of June, 1849, when it was finally discontinued, containing all the nine supplements and appendixes and with the rare index volume of 1818. 76 vols., 8vo, and 4to, uniformly and soundly bound in half sheep. Baltimore, Washington and Philadelphia, 1811-1849. $200.00

This extremely rare set covers a period in American history nowhere else recorded with so much minuteness. The War of 1812, the Florida, Black Hawk, and other Indian wars, the Texan Revolution, the Mexican War, the Conquest of California, and the discovery of gold, the exploration and settlement of the West, are all treated with great detail. Many important documents relating to the Revolution are printed in the supplements, and all the great speeches in Congress are given in extenso. For March, April, May, and June, 1848, no numbers were printed. A complete set is now next to impossible to find and the greatest importance to the historical student. An unusual chance for a public library or an historical society.

Separate volumes supplied to complete sets at $5.00 each.

The only work of any completeness on the American Stage of the last century. The author has consulted every authority upon the early drama in America and has carefully examined all the newspaper files down to 1800. The result is an immense amount of new information, historical, personal, and local. Besides a consecutive narrative in large, bold type, not the least valuable is the list of performances, casts of early companies, quaint advertisements, and criticisms which is embodied in the form of notes to the main text.

Very fine copy of this rare volume. The upper corner of two leaves have been very neatly repaired and a few of the letters on these two leaves supplied in facsimile so as to all but defy detection, but notwithstanding this it is probably as fine as any copy in existence, the few that have survived the efforts of the author to suppress it are, as is the case with Loudon's "Indian Wars," in very poor condition.

Field says: "So few copies have survived that its very existence was unknown to the most zealous collectors of Indian and Vermont history. Immediately after its appearance some person, evidently a personal enemy of the author, published an acrimonious critique upon the book. Such was the effect of the article either upon Mr. Sanders, or the publishers, that the work was suppressed. But very few copies escaped the hands that were now as zealous to destroy, as they had been lately to create. In fact it was forgotten by those who professed to know most of its author, his biographers. Neither Thompson, Williams, or Hemmeway, who published memoirs of him mention his authorship of the Indian Wars."

X 1208 Schoolcraft, Hy. R. Information respecting the History, Condition and Prospects of the Indian Tribes of the United States, Collected and prepared under the direction of the Bureau of Indian Affairs. 336 full page plates, representing thousands of drawings of weapons, domestic utensils, instruments of gaming and amusements, sorcery, medicine, objects of worship, sculptures, paintings, etc., some colored, and full-page steel engravings of scenery by Capt. $15.00

An invaluable work of reference under the editorship of Justin Winsor. Each period and event is written by the best specialist in that subject. For example, the Flora of Boston and Vicinity is by Asa Gray; Earliest Maps of Mass. Bay and Boston Harbor, by Justin Winsor; King
Philip's War, by Edward E. Hale; Indian Tongue and its Literature, by J. Hammond Trumbull; Boston Families, prior to 1700, by Wm. H. Whitmore, etc.

1775: when General Washington took command of the American Army. 8vo, original boards, uncut, with paper label, pp. 414. Bost., 1822.
$5.00

Very unusual in fine uncut condition.
The author was one of the most thorough and systematic of the earlier students of Massachusetts history. His style is clear and forcible but without ornament. This volume is important to the investigator.
Later a second and third volume covering the years 1775 to 1820, was issued, but the most interesting period is in the above volume.

2777 Campanius, Thomas. Kort Beskrifning Om Provincien Nya Sverige uti America Som nu fortyden of the Engelske Kallas Pennsylvania (Description of the Province of New Sweden now called by the English Pennsylvania. Compiled from the Relations and Writings of Persons worthy of Credit). By Thomas Campanius Holm. Engraved title and 6 maps and plans, and others in text. 4to, vellum (16), 190, 1. Stockholm, 1702. $60.00

A scarce work, relating to the establishment of the Swedes in Pennsylvania. The descriptions of the characteristics of the Indians have not a little value, as statements made probably from the narrations of an actual observer. Pastor Campanius, the author's grandfather, had an intimate acquaintance with the aborigines, as his translation of the Catechism into the Indian tongue fully attests. One of the illustrations is an early view of Niagara Falls, which has been cut close, and a small portion of the fore margin is missing.

up to the year 1796, including the boundaries of the State. 8vo, original calf, pp. (6) 504. Knoxville, 1823. $50.00

A good copy in the original binding, slightly foxed as usual of one of the rarest of state histories. The story of Indian conflict and massacre is narrated with great detail and minuteness, filling much the larger portion of the work. The story of the formation of the State of Franklin and the civil war which ensued is a chapter of American history but little known, although scarcely exceeded in interest by any other.
